

The METALOG® Method – From Game to Powerful Intervention

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> » Involve initiator(s) » Establish common sense of purpose » Trainer structures the assignment by developing achievable goals with all involved 	Tool is tailored for the group: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> » Outcome » Suitable isomorphism » Appropriate name » Introduction and performance using the "cultural language of the group" 	"Constructive clash": <ul style="list-style-type: none"> » Goal: group develops its own solution » Support through intervening, if necessary » "State of play" 	Reflection and coaching <ul style="list-style-type: none"> » Collect » Transfer » Develop 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> » New rituals » New rules » New goals » Mnemonic anchors » Where are individuals now? » Where is the group? » New needs? » Possibly new targets?
---	--	---	--	---

----->

Select the appropriate METALOG training tools	The tool as catalyst: The topic becomes easier to grasp / complexity is reduced. The experience creates new perspectives, knowledge, surprising insights.	Tool can serve as a memory anchor
---	---	---